

Maurice Armond

April 4, 1964 - May 9, 2024

Maurice Armond, 60, of New Haven, entered into eternal life May 9, 2024. In 2001, he accepted Jesus Christ and joined St. Matthew's and was baptized under the leadership of Bishop Gay. Maurice was born in New Bern, NC, on April 4th, 1964, to Gladys Jones. Maurice was adopted by Laula and Rufus Armond. Maurice then moved to Connecticut with his parents and also spent a lot of time with his grandparents in Harlem. He viewed this as the best of both worlds.

Maurice is survived by two lovely daughters, Shanique Armond (Crystal) of Whitsett, NC; and Moeneya Armond of New Haven; and a fur baby, who he loved dearly, Summer; a lovely sister Sandra (Maxine) Dixon of Atlanta, GA; a brother Calvin Jones (Stephanie) of New Haven; two uncles William Jones (Yvonne) of Oriental, NC and James Jones (Mary) of New York, NY. A very special person who held it down with him since day one (Thank you for everything!); a God sister, Charlie Rudolph of New Haven; a God brother Vincent Capers of New York, NY; and a special aide Marketta Williams of New Haven.

A Special Thanks By Maurice:

I want to thank Pastor Hardy, First Lady, and my church. My family members who have supported and prayed for me throughout my sickness, and even when I wasn't sick. A special thank you, Mother Gibson, and thanks to my nieces nephews and host of family and friends.

“ Moe was recently at my house visiting his Godson Demond. He was in my family for years. You will be missed Moe. God had a plan for you. Instead of being in a wheelchair, you will walk the streets of gold.
