MELISSA ANN MCMILLAN-HAYNES APRIL 15, 1972 MARCH 1, 2021
OBITUARY

Melissa (Lisa) Ann McMillan-Haynes, was born on April 15, 1972, to her late mother and father Joyce M. Baker (Heckstall) and Johnny M. McMillan

She was dedicated to making her children happy the best way she knew how and continued that dedication with her grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She was well-known by many people for her graciousness and willingness to give to those she encountered.

Lisa was well-known in the community and had an infectious, bubbly personality that everyone gravitated towards. When in her presence, there was never a dull moment. She was a comedienne, a doctor, a cook, and sometimes a personal therapist.

She was a principled woman with great strength who pulled through many circumstances no matter the difficulty. The best parts of her were imparted to those closest to her. We will continue to see remnants of her through our lives. May her beautiful sweet spirit and may her memories be cherished by each and every one of us.

She is survived by her siblings; Clayton McMillan (CO), Donna McMillan (MD), Donald McMillan (CT), Alan McMillan (CT), Robert Scott (CT) and Jacon McMillian (PA); her children; Eric Green (CT), Raven McMillan (CT), Ivanhoe (Malik) Haynes, Ivanhae (Vanna) Haynes, and Jeremiah Haynes of Poughkeepsie NY; her beloved grandchildren, Naomi Green, L'eric Green, Nylah Green, John (Liam) Padilla, Jace Padilla, Julius Padilla; a host of great nieces and nephews; a wide range of devoted family members, many friends and acquaintances.

“ My mom was an amazing woman! She was bright, bubbly, and full of love. She always made sure that I was okay and especially her grandchildren. No matter the event, she made her appearance known and made sure everyone had their best time. This is still hard to process. But I know she is by my side in spirit and will never let me go astray. Mom, I love you to the moon and back. Keep lighting up the sky and shining as bright as you can. Never, ever will you be forgotten. You are a star ✨ ! I love you ❤️💕💕💕
