

Mercedes Berrios

February 2, 1975 - August 23, 2024

Mercedes Berrios the time has come to bid farewell. The time has come to release you to God, full of peace and love. No more tears, my sweet; no more pain. Angel wings you have gained. Shining brighter than the sun. For you a ray of sunshine. A butterfly going from flower to flower. An eagle flying high above the storm. You are greatly missed, never forgotten and forever in our hearts your sunshine shines bright even in times of sorrow. Rest well Mercy.

“ The 23rd is approaching soon, and I can't stop thinking of you. I talk to you often out loud while I'm driving in the car cooking or just laying down because I wish you were still around. That evening just keeps playing in my head and I feel a part of me is dead. The truth will come out one day and that person will have to pay. What's done in the dark shall soon come to the light. Rest well bestie you're gone but you will never be forgotten. Heaven gained a beautiful angel 😊 Until we meet again 🌟 I love you sis 💜💜💜💜💜💜

“ To the most happiest person I know. You brought joy to all who knew you. Your spirit lives on within all who love you. Your laughter will resonate when we have memories of you. Your love of family will live on through. Your body is no longer among us, however, your spirit lives on. You have earned your Angel Wings. Rest in Peace.
