“ Mike I'm so sorry I couldn't be up there today. You were truly loved by so many. My condolences go out to his sons Oshkosh and Mike Jr. I have so many memories with you over the years, like teaching you how to drive (that was an experience) lol. I know in my heart you are at peace now. You are with Dad, Bruce and the rest of the family. I love you Mike, you will never be forgotten!! Rest easy Mike 🥀😭🙏 Shellie Brooks Creighton

“ My deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. My God give you all the strength that you may need during your time of sorrow. My daughter, Karlyse, and I called him Michael because that was who we met in 2013. He was the father figure she never had in her life. And Michael always said that he wanted a daughter. He taught her how to drive in his beloved Lexus! They respected each other so much and I'll always be thankful and grateful for that relationship. It's ironic what one can say when there are people present. But it wasn't so easy to say to the man that you loved and deeply respected. Michael, thank you for your time and patience. And showing Karlyse that you were the man that loved her and I the way that we were supposed to be loved. You will always hold a special place in both of our hearts. Sleep in peace. We will always love you ❤️

“ Mike was one of the most pleasant & humble person I have ever met. If you didn't know what he was going through, you would have no idea because of how he presents himself. He will be deeply missed. May his soul rest in eternal peace.
