

Michael Lee Callahan

February 11, 1964 - January 5, 2018

Michael Lee Callahan, age 53, son of June Callahan of Norwalk, CT and Edward Callahan Sr. of Washington, DC made his departure to be with our father God and the son of man Jesus in New Haven, CT on Friday, January 5, 2018.

Born on February 11, 1964 in Pulaski, VA. He lived in Stamford, CT before settling in New Haven. He worked as a music producer up until he was called home.

Known by his peers as a Musical Prodigy and a style icon, Michael was always the life of the party while maintaining his integrity, his pride and his dignity. While employed at AVIS car rental, he was highlighted and recognized for "Above and Beyond" customer service skills. A student of Stamford High school, he was most noted for his contribution to music legend Big Pun's Capital Punishment Album released in 1998.

Michael was a strong believer in God and principles. His moral compass lead him to become part of the Universal Zulu Nation in his youth.

He is predeceased by his paternal grandparents: Lorenzo Callahan and Edna Patterson. His maternal grandparents: Theodore Brown and Dorothy Moyer. He is remembered in Love by his father Edward Callahan Sr. of Washington, D.C., and mother June Callahan of Norwalk, CT. His loving children: Tachica Callahan of New Haven, CT, Tashina Hunt of Wilmington, NC., Delise Callahan of Pineville, SC., Amayia Callahan of Stamford, CT., Baby Girl Callahan of CT and his beloved grandchildren Ronnjae' and Ronnie Gordon of New Haven, CT. Besides his children, he is also survived by his 8 siblings. His loving sisters, Veronica Callahan, Angela Callahan, Bonita Callahan, Yvette Brooks, Beryl Brooks of CT and Trease Smith-Hall of Pulaski, VA. He will be deeply missed by his brothers Edward Callahan Jr., Anthony Brooks and Mario Callahan of CT.

Rest in peace Mike. Remember the dance at the Southfield Center. You were one of the best when it came to the dance called Hustling. I will never forget I was so stiff and would not allow you to control me on my turns.. You spin me around and then walked off the dance fall. I and my friends could not stop laughing. You would have to know Mike to understand how he looked by, smiled and kept walking. In other words I was messing up his style. Mike Zulu...much love baby ❤️

“ My prayers will always be with you as you know I just buried two of my brother's unexpectedly within 6 months. Time does heal a broken heart but you never got over the loss. Call me if you need to talk...I will continue to pray for you and your family.
