

Milton Williams

March 10, 1967 - July 12, 2020

Milton Douglas Williams was born on March 10, 1967 and transitioned on July 12, 2020 in New Haven, CT. He was the son of Edward Quick, Sr., and the late Beatrice Williams. Milton was educated in New Haven Public Schools and graduated from James Hillhouse High School. He dedicated his life to Christ at an early age and was baptized at the Community Baptist Church. As an adult, he was blessed to have found an additional spiritual family through the Trinity Church on the Green. Milton held a multitude of jobs. From unloading ships, to building fireplaces, to moving furniture for friends and family members, Milton was a great asset to the New Haven community. If you needed him he was there.

Milton would tell you that he was his mother's favorite child. What's not to love about a thumb sucking, blanket carrying, coffee-drinking son who was as tall as you and could make you laugh in spite of all his mischief? What is true is that Beatrice loved Milton with all her heart and she is likely rejoicing now that they are together again.

Milton lived a carefree life. He enjoyed sports and was a die-hard Dallas

Cowboy fan. He loved traveling, cooking, playing basketball, joking around, and hanging out with friends. If you wanted to connect with Milton, just look on Whalley Avenue between West Hills and the New Haven Green. Milton never met a stranger. He left an impression with everyone he met and he will be missed terribly.

Milton leaves to mourn his passing his brothers Benjamin (Loretta) Bellamy, Mark (Lorna) Williams, Kevin Hill,; sisters, Joanne Jones and Tanya Petrillo, of Connecticut; brothers Ricky Jackson and Ronnie Jackson of New York; Edward Quick, Jr. of Michigan; Ricky Downing of South Carolina; nephew Carrington (Eboni) Williams and niece Jessica Williams of Connecticut; niece Chanelle Roberts of Pennsylvania; grand-niece Ashia Williams and goddaughter Lanesha Taylor of Connecticut; a special Aunt, Florida "Vean" Alston of North Carolina; and a host of others aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and friends. His brother Jeffrey Jones preceded Milton in death.
