“ *My Dearest Aunt Minnie was always glad to see me. She and Uncle Al Richards would come and pick me up at were I was living in west Haven, and take me to their big house on Orchard Street in New Haven, CT. I am her nephew late on the seen to the Gibson-Byrd side of the family through no fault of my own or any else. But you would not know that by the warm reaction Dearest Aunt Minnie, Uncle Al, and the whole Gibson/mills household! It was as if I was always there. Thanks so much my dearest Aunt, for all the love, support, Christian guidance, good meals, and fun times. Memory Eternal, Light peace and a well deserved rest in God's presence.
