

Moses Jeffrey Swint

October 24, 1961 - March 23, 2021

Moses Jeffrey Swint 59, of New Haven, CT entered into rest on March 23, 2021. He was born in New Haven to the late Willie Swint Sr. and Jean Swint. Jeff attended New Haven Public Schools and Wilbur Cross High School. He continued his education at Gateway Community College majoring in Culinary Arts. Jeff was a Former Cook at Southern Connecticut State University. He also helped set up Boston Market in Hamden, CT and a few other restaurants before retiring due to his health. Jeff loved to cook, and teach others to cook and bake. He would often sell cakes and his famous sweet potato pies via Facebook for the holidays. He also enjoyed music, fishing, traveling down South and going to concerts. He took pride in his vegetable and herb garden in the backyard every year.

Jeff is survived by his mother Jean Swint, one son Moses Swint Jr. (Bainbridge, SC); three daughters Raina Barber (New Haven, CT), Jeaniesha Swint (Sandersville, GA), and Moseanique Swint (Bainbridge, SC); two sisters Betty Swint Burnett and Glenita Swint Moore (Arthur Moore) (New Haven, CT); two brothers Willie Swint Jr and James Swint (New Haven, CT), a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Jeff is predeceased by his father Willie Swint Sr., son Jeffrey Adams, sister in law Joanne Swint.
