She was a great daughter, sister and friend to everyone she touched. She lived life to the fullest, and loved event planning, traveling, dancing, modeling, cooking and a good ole game of pool.

During her time in South Carolina she had a meaningful impact where she worked diligently with a law firm and made a real difference in reshaping and saving the firm as Office Manager; which spoke to her strength, intelligence and leadership. She loved writing positive quotes everyday on a chalk board for everyone to see before starting their day. Beyond that, the friendship and lasting impressions she left showed how much she cared for her community until her untimely passing.
