“ Noreen was a great friend, we grew up in the same district in St.Thomas..Every Saturday I would visit (sent by my patents) her family's establishment to purchase grocery items. As we (my family, Buckleys) became closer to her, I realized she was truly a remarkable human being, very kind, extremely encouraging and just wanted 'good' for people, especially the ones from her area back home. Each morning, on my way to work we would talk until I reached my destination, then we would say our goodbyes, I didn't realized those 'good-byes' were a 'count-down', (MIGHTY GOD) I really loved this lady, she is truly missed..REST WELL IN GOD'S BOSSOM FRIEND, YOUR WORK HERE ON EARTH HAS BEEN COMPLETED, YOU HAVE DONE MIGHTY WELL..SIP!!

“ A prayer of Comfort

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come before You today with heavy hearts as we mourn the loss of our beloved sister Noreen. Though I cannot be present at her homegoing service, I want Jarrett, Beckford, the Espeut family, and all of Noreen's children and husband to know that my heart and prayers are with them during this profoundly difficult time.

Lord, I ask for Your comforting presence to envelop them. May they feel Your love and peace that surpasses all understanding. Wrap them in Your arms, carrying them every step of the way as they navigate this journey of grief.

Grant them strength to face the days ahead and heal their hearts with the assurance of Noreen's love and the hope of eternal life. Help them find solace in cherished memories and the support of family and friends who care for them deeply.

In this moment of sorrow, may they lean on You for comfort and guidance. Let them feel Your presence, reminding them that they are never alone. We trust in Your promise to be near to the brokenhearted, and we ask that Your light shines brightly in their darkest moments

Lord please remind them that tears are a language that You understand. It's okay to cry; there are no time limits on their grief. Each tear is a reflection of love and loss, and You hold those emotions tenderly..

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
