“ Num...you were a confidant, a friend and the Godfather of my middle son Rodney...I find it hard to believe that when my Birthday comes I won't get a call. Your friendship was always genuine. Your presence in our family dates way back. God saw fit to call you home yet your presence will be missed by us who are left behind. May God comfort your family and other friends and may your soul rest in eternal peace. Always in our heart...love Sharyn and Rodney Grant

“ Always loved working with Lieutenant Mayo. Norm made the Fire Department a great work environment. Taught me a few things and we would taunt each other with pranks related to our fear of snakes.
