“ To the family and other loved ones of Pebbles,
What a deep sense of loss we all feel when someone we love is taken away in death. We all cling to the thought that we will see them again. But how or when is this going to happen? Take courage, the bible assures us that we can trust this feeling. Acts 24:15 reminds us of our Heavenly Father's promise of a resurrection. He calls death our " enemy" . He purposes to do away with it . 1 Corinthians 15:26. Then there will be no reason to be sad or feel that empty void that death leaves us with. Revelation 21:3,4 is a promise soon to be fulfilled. Verse 5 is our assurance and Titus 1:2 is our guarantee.

“ Lord, I come to you know for my friend. I come to you to ask that you provide them strength and comfort in this time of deep need. Their hurt and grief run so deep. I feel so much pain for them, but I can only imagine how hard this time must be for them. I pray that you help them maintain their faith in you during this difficult time.

I know you can be our greatest shoulder, but I also ask that you remain their biggest provider. It is a time when daily life can be so burdensome. Please provide patience from others as they work through their grief. Surround them with understanding so that they can work through all the emotions this loss brought up. In this time when so many things get lost - bills need to be paid, homework needs to be done, etc. - allow those around them to help keep regular life on track.

And Lord, Provide me with the comforting words, the kindness in my heart, the patience to allow the grief to take it's course.

I pray these things in your holy name. Amen.

“ Auntie, I love you so much and I miss you but I know your ok,from the moment I open my eyes as a baby you and I became best friends, always doing stuff together, hanging out watching some freddy kruger, chucky, beetleJuice and CatDog. You had this beautiful kind of aura that me and our family and friends loved about you. I always loved coming to you for advice. We had some great times But I know I'll see you again someday so we can hang.

I'll meet you on the other side - Anthony Hamilton

“ My heart is heavy on today because I lost a sister, and a friend :( but God knows what's best for us in our lives here, and he still gets all the Praise and the Glory! Aunt Doll, Aunt Sissy, Monte, Debbie, I love all of you so much and I send my condolences to all of you for your lost, but praise God any how because Pebbles has left a legacy with all her beautiful children and her spirit lives through them. Family I love you all. I speak peace and comfort to the whole family in Jesus name.
