

Olevia Cook

November 23, 1961 - June 7, 2020

Olevia Leonard Cook (Six) was born in Trenton, NJ on November 23, 1961. He was the son of Queenabell Killens and the late Olevia Mungro. He received his formal education in Trenton, NJ. Six attended and completed Tractor Trailer School and Culinary Art School.

Six was a man of many talents. He was the former owner of Cook's Mobile Detail and Cook-Mo- Beans in Charlotte, NC.

Olevia is survived by his LOVING wife Angelina Outing-Cook of New Haven; his mother Queenabell Killens of Bloomfield; his four daughters Natasha Outing & Lyntina Cook of New Haven, CT. Chayanna Crumble of Los Angeles, CA and Lynnisha Cook of Charlotte, N.C; one son J'Veil Outing SR; two grandsons Jaquan Nelson & J'veil Outing JR; six sisters Ruby Bridges, Patricia Cook, Phyllis Miller, Savannah Libby Jackson, Darlene Mungro, and Grace McConnico; five brothers Olevia Wesley Mungro, James O. Mungro, Steve Mungro, Olevia R. Mungro and Robert Cook.

He was predeceased by his father Olevia Mungro and his three brothers Leven Cook, Charles "Heavy" Mungro, Bradford "Willie" Mungro.

Six was loved by host of nieces, nephews; sister in laws, brother in laws, cousins and family & friends.

To know Six was to love him. He was truly one of a kind. The true definition of "Living My Best Life".
