

Oscar Brown

April 30, 1973 - July 16, 2024

As Sand flows, through the hourglass, so are the day of our lives. Oscar Brown, affectionately known as OB, peacefully passed away on Friday, July 16, 2024, as he entered eternal rest.

Time to be Born

OB A vibrant gift of life was born to the Oscar Darden and the late Eula Mae Brown of New Haven.

Portrait of Life

OB Spent his childhood days growing up in New Haven, attending the New Haven school system. As a child Oscar loved being in the kitchen cooking and spending time with his late grandmother fishing. He loved spending time at family gatherings and cookouts. Oscar was very adventurous and wanted to be the inventor of the family. He would talk about inventing gadgets like the cellphone, which he said someone stole his invention. He often dreamt of opening sub shops throughout Connecticut naming in honor after his aunts and uncles.

A Time to Live

OB In 2002 Oscar married the love of his life Pamela Brown of 22years. He made his home at 90 Park Street in New Haven, where the community affectionately referred to him as "The Teddy Bear in the Second-Floor Window." Oscar had a strong bond with his sister, Lorraine Brown, and took great joy in being a loving brother and uncle. He deeply valued the time spent with his nephew, who brought him much happiness.

A Time to Die

OB On Friday July 16th, Our Heavenly Father sent on Angel to escort him into eternal rest. Oscar was preceded in death by his mother, Eula Mae Brown; his maternal grandparents, Deacon Raleigh Brown and Lorraine Brown; his brothers, Ronnie Darnell Brown and Joshua Brown; his sister, Laverne Darchelle Brown; and his aunt and uncles, Betty Ann Brown, Curt Brown, John Brown, and Laverne Brown.

A Time to Mourn

OB is survived by his beloved wife, Pamela Brown; his sister, Lorraine Brown; and his nephew, Legend Baldwin, all of New Haven. Also mourning his loss are his brother, Vernell Brown of South Carolina; his aunt, Francine Brown of Myrtle Beach, SC; his special cousin, Antonio Setzer (Buddy); and a host of cousins, family, and friends from 90 Park Street, New Haven, CT.
