“Parker Bailey lived for years in one of the two upstairs apartments at the same entryway of the same building in the Westville section of New Haven where I have lived (on the ground floor) since moving to New Haven in 1985, so Parker and I became acquainted over the years, and then became friends. He let me use his TV to watch some scientific videos relevant to my work, because I never replaced my TV after it stopped working, and couldn't watch videos on the computer I had at the time. Parker also joined me in going to the last performances of plays that I saw in New Haven (which has such good theater, thanks to the presence of the Yale School of Drama). He had done amateur theatricals in college and was knowledgeable about theater, and I enjoyed his company. He was also a help in bringing in packages that UPS or Fedex or the mail carriers had left by the mailboxes, and leaving the packages by my door. I'm somewhat disabled now, and carrying packages weighing more than a couple of pounds even a short distance had become a bit of a problem. Parker remained cheerful even as his health and memory failed him near the end. I was sorry to hear of his passing, but I'm glad that he didn't have to contend with those problems for decades. My condolences to his family and friends. Tom Stolper (Thomas E. Stolper).

“To the family of Parker Bailey.
Please accept my sincere sympathy on the loss of your loved one. Parker was a long time friend to my brother Tom, and he was a guest at my home many times over the years. He was a gentle, kind person and a pleasure to have known.
He will now find peace with our Lord.
