

Patricia A. McKay-Gagum

March 7, 1959 - October 21, 2021

Patricia McKay-Gagum was one of the children of Lizzie Gatison McKay & The Late Bishop Henry McKay. Born on March 7, 1959, in New Haven CT, she spent half of her life in Conway, S.C. and continued it here in New Haven CT.

Patricia was the 2nd child of 5 children. To her Mother she was "PAT". Patricia departed this life October 21, 2021, surrounded by her 4 children. She was preceded in death by her husband Larry Gagum, brother Henry McKay, and Sister Lynoria McKay.

Patricia was educated in the New Haven Public Schools, and formerly employed by Conway Motor Inn and New Dimension Project, Inc. She loved spending time with her children and would do anything to support them. She was a faithful virtual and In-Person member of the New Dimension Church, Watertown, CT, where her son is pastor.

Patricia was a very happy and outgoing person, a domestic violence survivor, even in the areas of her health she pressed on the upward way gaining new heights every day, and she enjoyed life to its fullest, and kept on fighting until she fought the good fight, finished her course, and kept the faith. She loved her family and her family loved her. In the words of Patricia, "Don't Nobody Mess With My Kids"

Patricia leaves to mourn and to cherish her memory: Her 4 Children, Pastor Willie McKay, Kenneth McKay, Charles McKay, and Laricia McKay-Torres (Jasmin); Daughter In love, Joi N. McKay; her mother Lizzie Gatison McKay; her brothers, John McKay, and Ronald McKay; and her half-sister Natasha Little, and host of grand kids, relatives, and friends.
