

Peggy Ann Godfrey-Floyd

June 21, 1954 - December 10, 2022

Peggy Ann Godfrey-Floyd was born on June 21, 1954 in Whiteville, North Carolina. As a young child, she moved to New Haven, CT where she was raised by her grandparents. Peggy attended New Haven Public Schools and graduated from Richard C. Lee High School New Haven, CT in 1973. In November 1987, she graduated from the Connecticut Basic Nurse Aide Training Program. Throughout the years, she worked as a nursing and home health aide in various capacities, fulfilling her passion for assisting others. Peggy was last employed at Arden House Nursing Facility in Hamden, CT where she retired after 20 years.

Peggy was predeceased by her parents, Jimmy and Mary E. Berry; maternal grandparents, Minnie Jane and Burke Godfrey. Left to cherish her memory is her beloved husband of 27 years, Clifton Floyd; her son, N’Gai Godfrey, her daughter Marinda Godfrey and her bonus Chanine Hall; her grandchildren, Teeyahra Yancey-Godfrey, Erin Jones, Taquan Hansberry, Jada Brown, Taniya Pollard, N’Gai Godfrey Jr, Chancellor Johnson, Morgan Godfrey, Maci Hall, and Kennedy Godfrey; great grandchildren, Zy’aire Godfrey, A’Niylee Boykin, and Aiden Walker; and godchildren, Marsha Bromwell and Lynwood Lacey; two sisters, Janice Sullivan and Debrea Berry; and a host of family and friends. A heartfelt special acknowledgement to Tarrance Godfrey, a devoted cousin, for his loving and steadfast care of Peggy during her most difficult times. Our family is grateful to know that she is finally at peace.
