

Quinton McIntyre

February 4, 1971 - August 31, 2024

Quintin “Chickadee” McIntyre, died peacefully Saturday, August 31, 2024. Quintin was known for improving his community, stylish clothes, and a loving heart. His brilliant mind, quick wit, and warm smile were loved and admired by all who knew him.

Born in New Haven on February 4, 1971, Quintin attended New Haven public Schools including Conte Elementary School and Wilbur Cross High School. Throughout his early years and continuing into his adult years Quintin was a bookworm; determined to preserve Comic Books.

Quintin loved spending time with his family, playing cards, and rocking to old jams. He was an ambitious man whose priority was being a provider for his friends and family.

Quintin remained committed and devoted to improving his Stompin Grounds better known as “ The G” food disparities. He spent his summers serving breakfast with his eldest sisters Antoinett Turner, Sheratter Todd, and deceased sister Tammy Green. As a mogul in the community, their Breakfast and Lunch Program was one of the most successful food initiatives in the neighborhood.

He leaves to cherish in memory: his 6 children, Quintin McIntyre Jr., Quavon

Torres, Bo McIntyre, Amber Torres, Quay McIntyre, Que McIntyre of New Haven, CT; 9 grandchildren Quintin McIntyre III, Quavon Torres Jr, Quinn McIntyre, Quince McIntyre, Quincy McIntyre, Quayla McIntyre, AJ McIntyre, Kobe McIntyre, and Michael McIntyre of New Haven, CT; and a sister, Felicia McIntyre of New Haven, CT; survived aunts Dorothy McIntyre of Washington, D.C, Marian Davis, Christine Myrick of New Haven, CT, survived uncles Lewis Myrick and Mackson Bennett of New Haven, CT.

Quintin was predeceased by his mother, Florence McIntyre, father Raymond Jones of Washington D.C.; and uncle Ronald McIntyre of Washington, D.C. Quintin shall forever live in the hearts, minds and memories of a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
