“ Gina was my best friend and the second mother to my kids. What a blessing it was having her in our lives for the last ten years. Nobody can ever love my kids the way Gina did. We are going to miss her so much. Lord thank you for bringing her to our lives. RIP Gina Love Always, Mimi, Nathan, and Jaylee

“ Regina I miss you so much. You was my roommate and the hoyses is not the same without you. Although you was my Aunt we grew up as sisters and when Marlon passed away you was right there for me, you also sort of became my dependent. I remember telling you that I was going to file you on my income taxes. I will always love you and you will forever be in my heart!
