“ When I think of Rev. Petteway I’m reminded of the words “that this is a church that is not afraid to Praise God’s name”. As a child I looked up to him. He baptized me at Zion, I sang in the men’s choir my mom taught and continues to teach Sunday school there. I have often looked for a church that gave me the feeling of love and compassion as Zion Baptist Church did. Rev. Petteway you will be truly missed. Your words of praise filled me heart with joy and compassion. I thank you for your blessings, your help and your willingness to lead. God truly has an angel on his right hand side. God bless the family.

My Heart is there.

When Rev first came to Waterbury I was a little girl. He would load us in his brown Fleetwood and drive us to Portsmouth Va., in the summer. He spent lots of time with the youth in Zion. He was and still is...so loved. Condolences to the Petteway Family.
