Robert “Polo” Cirino Sr. a New Haven resident was born on June 26, 1974 to the Late Apolinar Cirino and Ada Lopez-Spann. Born and raised in New Haven he attended the New Haven Public School System. Later in life, he attended Online schooling where he studied Accounting. He also held a job doing HAVC (Heating, Air Ventilation, and cooling), until he became disabled.

To know Polo is to love him. The most important things that he was passionate about was his family, but most of all his children and his mother. He Loved to laugh, joke around, had a beautiful sense of humor and he had a huge heart. He was always kindhearted. He was a die-hard San Francisco 49er fan.

Robert is preceded in death by his Grandfather Forencio Lopez Sr (maternal), grandmother, Kusu Carraiquillo (parental), step father Warren Spann Sr., brother Apolinar Cirino Jr., sister Demitra Kimbro, and son Robert Cirino Jr.

Robert leaves to mourn his passing, his wife Corina Robinson, mother Ada Lopez-Spann, his grandmother Ada B. Lopez, his brothers Tony Cirino, Warren Kimbro Jr. sister Leli Cirino. His sons Brian Ward, Jaquaine Manley, his daughters Tyonna Garrett and Leosha Toney, god daughter Antonika

Outlaw and granddaughter Aryelis Tixi. Aunts Amelia Johnson (Leonard), Brunilda Samuels (Dana), Arcenia Lopez, Georgina Cirino, Marcusa Cirino, Awilda Cirino , uncle Apo Cirinio. Also, a host of cousins, Nieces, newphews and friends.

A heartfelt thanks to all that provided comfort to the family in so many ways. The abundance of love received to ease the pain and sorrow of losing our love one. Although it is farerwell to the physical form today, it is, “see you later” to the soul and spirit. You are no longer feeling any type of pain, heartache or stress.

Robert you will forever be remembered as the kind, loving, respectful and caring person that you were in life, I will love you forever. - Mom
