“ Danna just learned of the passing of your son word can not express the deepest sadness I feel for your and your family. What can you really say to a mom that has lost a child but I had to say something I love you big Sis with all my heart hold your head up I never losted a child but I have losted many love ones and i can tell you day by day it gets a little easier This is the time that you will need everyone should to lean on just know that God is to wise to make a mistake. Danna I am just a phone call awayif you ever need me. To the brothers and sisters and his children stay strong as you possibly can and remember he is always with you just remember all the good times that you shared and for those that are to small to remember tell them stories so that his memory lives on. Ms. Cato you are a pilar of strenght hold on.

Love You All

“ Our condolences to Carmen/Carol and their families for the lost of a loved one. May it give you comfort to know that Robert is at rest and no longer have to suffer. I believe the angels took charge and carried him home to be with the Lord.

We will keep you in our prayers.
