

Robin Robinson

April 1, 1968 - December 5, 2020

Robin Lynn Robinson passed away peacefully December 5, 2020 at Yale Medical Center in New Haven, Connecticut. Robin was born in Middlesex County, Virginia on April 1, 1968 to Sherwood and Barbara Robinson. She was the youngest of their children and even as a small child Robin had an infectious smile and a heart of gold.

As a child Robin was a dutiful servant at the Grafton Baptist Church. She had a melodious voice and sang in Grafton's Choir. Robin was educated in the Middlesex County Schools and graduated from Middlesex High School. She attended Norfolk State University before moving to Connecticut.

Robin enjoyed loving on people. Anytime she had an opportunity to host and cook; she did just that and enjoyed every moment of it. With her famous Minced BBQ and Fried Chicken (actually any soul food dish your heart desired) she was "Johnny on the Spot." Robin was an inspired baker and she created many different pastries, cakes and pies. This later inspired her to start her private baking service; where she spent many hours thanks to Betty Crocker.

After moving away from Middlesex County to Connecticut; sometimes that good ride back home was what her soul needed. She would laugh and joke and enjoy her siblings and family. Her motto was: "Be kind and help others. The world can always use one more kind person." She was a living example of her favorite Bible verse, 1 John 4:8 — “Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.”

Robin was a caregiver by nature, and she was really good at it. You never had a dull moment in her company; and she made sure by design. She left a distinct mark on the world and will surely be missed! Robin was preceded in death by her mother Barbara Robinson, her father Sherwood Robinson, her brother Antonio Robinson and her grandparents Rebecca and Lorenzo Burrell.

Robin is survived by her daughters Courtney Lynn Robinson (Armando Johnson), Chasity Bell, and Gavanna Wilson; her granddaughters Maleigh Robinson, and Zariyah Johnson; her sister Melody Scott; her brother Dwight Burrell (Karen); nieces Lakia Burrell-Cooke (Thomas), and Shawnice Burrell; nephews Dwight Burrell Jr., Tevin Scott, and Maxwell Burrell. Many aunts, uncles, cousins, great nephews, great nieces, very special friends Verta Stevenson and Theresa Williams. All of whom she inspired “ Robin truly enjoyed being around her family. I remember meeting up at our Grand Parents and laughing for the entire weekend. Her smile and lightheartedness came directly from her dad (Uncle Sherwood). We didn't need or had cable back then because Robin was our entertainment 😊. Take your rest cousin, we will see you in the upper room.

Robin my adopted mother not official but ma you left so many people here torn an hurt cause you left us without saying good bye. As i write im in tears cause i just seen you an i told you that day when u went to the hospital to call me so i can come visit you an when i fou d you you pass mom i couldnt believe it. You was a amazing mother a grandmom an a excellent listener an when i ever need you for advice you know i was hardheaded but eventually i listen an it came out better. I miss talking to you i miss coming to ur beautiful house an the good smell of incents candles omg. But ma i remember you went out an brought me everything i need to hook up my house an i said to you ma thats when i move an you said i b there to help you decorate but now you not here to help me but i promise i will decorate it just like you did at ur house. Ma robin i will never forget you. You forever in my heart soul an mind. God really took the best person in this world cause he know you was amazing person an you already earn ur wings. I promise to help ur daughter Courtney an all the grands if anything. But i love you ma an always will.
