*Well Robin, it's hard to believe that my little sister is gone. I miss you so much it feels like a part of me has gone with you...I thank GOD for the gift of all the crazy memories. It was sooo hard to watch you suffer because as your big sister I could always fix it.... I'm sorry that I couldn't this time!
The outpouring of love and respect for you has been AWESOME...Rob you will truly be missed
I LOVE YOU so much!
RIP Little Sister, til we meet again.
P.S. tell mommy, daddy and mama I said hey!!!

i miss robin so much she was one of a kind she always made me fell like we could just sit and talk about anything...and i mean"anything" i would stop by her house to check on her some days she would say can you stop by tomorrow and i would. robin and sydney gave the best cook outs with open arms you could just feel the love once you entered the back yard.we all grew up together out west hills those we're such wonderful times.sydney threw a party for dawn and a few times i would glance over at them two you could see the joy and pain they shared missing thier sister on a night it would have been"three the hard way". god bless you sydney and dawn...thank god for the fond memories. your brother wayne

“ My condolences to the family. Robin during my teen years was much younger so I knew her as one of the little kids since I was older. But when I look at her picture I see the Robin that I remember with that smile. I'm glad when I was in New Haven several years go I had the opportunity to see Robin and I saw hert smile. It brought back memories of my days in West Hills and the unwritten rule of being part of that West Hills family. RIP. Your West Hills Older friend Ernie Troutman

“ My condolences goes out to the Simpkins family. To me she was one of those little kids who hang around her sisters or who I would see in passing. I'm glad I had the opportunity to see Robin several years ago when I was home visiting. When I saw Robin's picture I automatically recognize that Robin's smile and it brought back to those earlier memories of her and West Hills. RIP. Ernie Troutman

“ My sincere condolences to the Simpkins family. It seems like it was just yesterday when we were teens having a good time at the house out in West Hills. We were all special kinds of friends, where everybody knew the whole families of everybody and that made us all one big family. Robin was funny. Whenever I saw her she always made me laugh and her personality never changed. I pray that God bring comfort and peace to this family. Love Eleanor W.
