“ Yoyo, I am so sorry that your time here on earth has been cut short. Uncle Tom and I have always stuck by you, never ever turning our backs on you. I was so very proud of you when you received your GED. I will forever hold fast to all the fond memories of your childhood, growing up in our home. We so desperately tried to rescue you in your times of need. We were always there trying to instill proper values in you. May you rest in peace Son. I love you but God loves you Best.

“ I want to express my sincere and deepest sympathy throughout your tremendous loss of RonG. I am trying my best to cope with him leaving so sudden because his job wasn't done. He searched for Love&Assurance from all around him and to have this happen to someone as loving as him is unacceptable. RonG will always be remembered for: the jokes that made us laugh, the music he loved and played for the parties we threw and for simply being himself. Even when he was going through a rough time with his trials in his own life he tried not to show it and I am going to miss him dearly; I've lost a great friend.
