“ My condolences to the family. Uncle I miss you so much already. I'm especially happy to have seen you a few years ago. You are still funny as hell. Thank you for coming to Manhattan and picking us city kids up in that station wagon so we could get fresh air and freedom. Thank you for putting the worms on my hook when we went fishing. Thank you for all your wisdom and love. You will be forever in my heart. Till we meet again, keep everyone in heaven cracking up. Niecy

“ Allison Newton sent a virtual gift in memory of Ronald Long

“ Mr Long was one of the greatest, smart, funny, and caring. He always had a good joke to tell. I've been out of New Haven for a while now but Troy and I went to see him the last time I visited. It took him a minute to remember who I was but once he did his motor was running on high octane. He was joking about things I didn't know he knew or would remember. Never missing a beat. He will be missed but never forgotten. My heart goes out to the Long family, a family that took me in as one of their own. May God bless you all.
