

Ronald Tripp

December 31, 1949 - May 31, 2024

Ronald Thomas Tripp passed away peacefully, surrounded by family and friends in his last days. Born in Camden, New Jersey, Ronald was the beloved son of William and Hermeine Tripp. He is survived by his devoted sons Erik Murrell, Malik Tripp, and Kwasi Tripp; his daughters-in-law Amanda Tripp and Stephanie Murrell; his loving sisters Shirley and Karen Tripp; his cherished nephews Derek Tripp & Wesley Bullock; and his adored nieces Khadijah Taylor and Raushanah Bullock. Ronald also leaves behind four beloved grandchildren and a host of extended family and friends who will miss him dearly.

Ronald served his country with distinction in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. He was awarded the Expert Infantry Badge, the National Defense Service Medal, and the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal (Korea). Ronald received an honorable discharge, a testament to his bravery and dedication to his nation.

After his military service, Ronald found his calling as a truck driver. He took pride in his work and retired with many miles and stories to his name. Ronald was known for his zest for living and his love of socializing with people from all walks of life. He enjoyed music from all eras, he played congas with professional precision, and couldn't resist a sing-along with family and friends. His spirited sense of humor and quick wit made him the life of any gathering.

Ronald had a reputation for being "cheap," a quality that often led to humorous moments. He once joked, "Why pay for a parking meter when you can park three blocks away for free and get some exercise?" His thrifty ways were always delivered with a wink and a smile, endearing him to those who knew him best. His oldest son, endearingly dubbed him Ronald "Accounts Receivable" Tripp.

Ronald Thomas Tripp will be remembered for his love of life, his dedication to his family and country, and his ability to bring laughter to any situation. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unforgettable memories. May God continue to embrace him as he rest in peace.

Cemetery Details

Connecticut Veterns Cemetery

317 Bow Lane
Middletown
Middletown, CT 06457

Previous Events

Burial

JUN 18. 1:00 PM (ET)

Connecticut Veterns Cemetery
317 Bow Lane
Middletown
Middletown, CT 06457