Rosetta Mack

September 1, 1964 – May 15, 2025

Rosetta “Rosie” Mack, lovingly known as “Rosie,” of New Haven, Connecticut, passed away peacefully on May 15, 2025, at the age of 60.

Born on September 1, 1964, in New Haven, Rosie was a beloved daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She was preceded in death by her parents, James R. Mack and Grace Ann Staton Mack; her sister Lorraine Stanley; and her nephew James Moore, along with a host of cherished loved ones.

Rosie leaves behind her loving daughter, Shoshana Grant; devoted son, Lemuel Burrison; and two adoring grandchildren, Malikhi Grant and Nazaria Mateo. She is also survived by her brother, James Mack; sister, Jeanette Moore; nephews Lee Mack and Redmond Moore; nieces Dominique Mack and Javon Moore; great-nephew Lee Liam James Mack; and great-nieces Aaliyah and Jauquay. Her legacy of kindness and strength will continue to live on through each of them.

Rosie dedicated 23 years of service to Yale University, where her hard work and warm spirit left a lasting impression on all who knew her. A creative soul, she loved to draw and explore new places through travel in her free time. A woman of faith, Rosie was a proud member of the Baptist church.

Rosie's memory will be cherished always, and her love will remain in our hearts forever.
