

Roxanne Pisani

May 8, 1953 - November 12, 2022

Roxanne Pisani, 69 of New Haven, CT departed this earthly life unexpectedly on Saturday, November 12, 2022.

She was born in Bridgeport, CT on May 8th, 1953 to the late Nicolas and Olga “Pearl” Pisani. She graduated from Warren Harding High School in Bridgeport, CT and took business courses at Housatonic Community College. Roxanne relocated to New Haven, CT with her two sons. She worked in various secretarial roles and in 1997 was employed by Bank of America, where she worked for nearly 20 years until her retirement. She attended Saint Michael Church in New Haven, CT, a Parish of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Hartford.

As a cancer survivor Roxanne had a true love for life. She loved traveling, shopping, and enjoying the company of her friends and family. She had a love for music and dancing. Roxanne lit up any room she entered with her joyful presence, signature short, red hair, and stylish fashion. She had a fun-loving personality and was described by many as “the life of the party”. She was playfully called “Foxy Roxy” by her friends and was affectionately called “Grandma Sand Rocks” by her grandchildren. We will miss seeing her beautiful smile, hearing her raspy voice, and reading her long and thoughtful text messages. She exuded love and kindness and will be missed by those she’s left behind.

Roxanne was predeceased in death by her parents, Nicolas and Olga "Pearl" Pisani, and her grandson, Dae'onte Wolkfork-Pisani. She leaves to cherish her loving memory, her sons whom she loved dearly, Andre and Damian (Keia) Pisani; her granddaughters Sharae Clark, Taraja Pisani, Najla Roberts, Areia Howard-Pisani and Keira Pisani; her brothers Anthony (Lee) Pisani, Nicolas Pisani; her sisters Louise (Ted) Secord and Candice (Vinny) Pisani, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins, and a dear friend, Warren Cooper.
