“ Miss Ruth was my family's next door neighbor. She was always sweet and kind. She "hired" me a few times to babysit Lori and Renard. Heaven has a new angel. May she rest in peace.

“ She was an amazing lady that I had gotten to know. She cared for her family and did all she could for others. A loving spirit that will be miss in and out of church. She's truly going to be missed. You've earned your wings and heard Him say "Well Done, my good and faithful servant "

“ Met Ms. Sutton when I moved to Connticut in 1988 as I resided in the multiple family house her family owns!

Years later after I had my son, she said here's some money for your son who was about 2 or 3 years old at the time! It was such a sweet gesture & it definitely came in handy!

May her family & friends be comforted during & after the time of bereavement!

My condolences!
