

Sadie Goethe

September 4, 1941 - April 9, 2020

On Thursday, April 9, 2020, God called Sadie Barrett-Goethe to take her journey to the beautiful world of eternal rest. God

Sadie Barrett-Goethe was born on September 4, 1941, in Carthage, North Carolina. Sadie is survived by her sisters Mary Boone of Stamford, CT and Marilyn Barret of Raeford, NC. She is predeceased by her parents, Thomas and Pearl Barrett, sister Olivia Ellerbe, brother Eugene Barrett and daughter Celeste Barrett. She is survived by her husband of over 54 years Mack Goethe.

Sadie attended Pinckney High School in Carthage, NC. She relocated to Stamford, CT in the early 1950s where she became a mother to her community. She was known for helping others, making icy for the neighborhood and also served as the captain of the Community Block. Sadie loved cooking and spending time with family, laughing and always wearing a smile on her face. She joined Community Tabernacle of Deliverance where she became a church mother. As a result of her generous spirit and pleasant personality, she was loved by many.

She leaves to cherish her memories: all her children from Stamford, Connecticut, Faye Barrett-Morris (Greg), Cathy Whitley (Danny), Alicia Goethe- Hargrove (John), Linda Goethe, Yolanda Goethe, Tracey Goethe, Shawnee Goethe, and Anthony Goethe; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, a devoted caregiver Wendy Ford. She will be deeply missed by her friends, family, and all who knew her.
