

Sandra Vaughn

November 14, 1956 - November 1, 2021

Sandra Harriet Vaughn 11/14/1956-11/1/2021

Born in New Haven to Charlotte Anne Harriet Brown-Vaughn (Deceased) and Edward Vernon Vaughn (Deceased). Children Vernon Vaughn (Rico), Laverne Harris-Wellington, Margaret Brodie, Kenny Vaughn (Jackie), Edwena Brodie, Kai McIntosh (Dawna).

Sandra worked at Yale University for over 30 years as a Custodian. Prior to Yale, Sandra was an entrepreneur pursuing a cleaning business. She is predeceased by her mother Charlotte, and father Edward.

Sandra is survived by her sons Tylon Vaughn, Calvin Vaughn, And Carmello Dekane (Erica). She leaves behind 13 grandchildren (Jahlen, Jakari, Tynasia, Tylonna, Tylon Jr., Joliegh, O'Naveis, Carmella, Carmello, Carmine, Jamella, Erica, Eric); 1 great grandchild Kyleigh, and a host of family and friends.

Sandra had a green thumb and always took her time to nurture her beautiful garden. She loved animals including her love for roosters (Lil Louie). She had a great voice and would randomly start singing oldies but goodies and her favorite gospel songs. Her favorite music group was the Isley Brothers, more specifically Ernie Isley.

Her door hung on the hinge of welcome. You were welcomed in her home. If you called on Sandy she was there for you. She was everyone's Auntie or Godmother. She was diligent in spreading the word of God. She would share a Sabbath scripture every Saturday and offer up a prayer for you.

She did not have millions to give, but she gave us Jesus. And when she gave us HIM, she gave the best of her.

Service at Mount Zion church at Sunday the 14th at 4pm, repass after service.

Burial service Monday at 11am
