“ A Child Of Mine - Edgar Albert Guest
I will lend for a little time,
A Child of mine, He said.
For you to love while he lives,
And mourn for when he's dead.
It may be six or seven years,
Or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call him back,
Take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
And should his stay be brief.
You'll have his lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn,
I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true,
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I selected you.
Now will you give him all your love,
Nor think the labour vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take him home again?
I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness,
We'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for him,
Much sooner than we've planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,

And try to understand.

Mr. Sean T. Peterson, My Cousin, I dedicate this Poem to Your Soul and Your Spirit from Each and Everyone that knows Your Family and Friends and even anyone that you never got to meet and know. You were a presence that will forever be missed.
