“ Sheila was a lot like her mother and her aunts. She was bossy like Aunt Laura, never backing down from a challenge or fight, she was compassionate like Aunt Mae, always there when a family member was in need or in the hospital or sick, and she was outgoing and feisty like her Godmother Aunt Shirley, fashionably astute and willing to try new things. She loved life and she lived life to her fullest. She was often the rains that pulled the family together, and the glue that kept it from falling apart. She had her own special and unique qualities that made her who she was, and she stood out among us all. She fought the good fight to The bitter end, and when it was all said and done she joined Angels. Rest in Heavenly peace Dear Cousin, you have earned your place among the Angels . Love You ❤️

“ My Aunt the most generous person I know loved her family more than anyone should. She made it to every party , cookout, reunion, family events Her share of funerals . She always looked forward to MY girls night out at the movies , she'd call me and said " OK girl when we going to the movies ?" and she always looked forward to going out to eat after.....She say " Movies and Chill ". I love you Auntie more than you'll. Ever know !!!! #FAMILY OVER EVERYTHING 💔😭😭
