

Shirley Lipscomb

September 12, 1939 - January 5, 2021

Shirley Lipscomb, 81 born Sept. 12, 1939 passed peacefully on Tuesday, Jan. 5, 2021 at the Apple Rehab Laurelwood Nursing Home. She was born in Camden, S.C to the late James & Nicey Turner. She was a devoted mother to the late Paul Lipscomb Jr. and survived by her daughter Gloria Turner of New York, bro in law Barry Rashkin of New York, sister in law Cookie Turner of South Carolina. She cherished her family and leaves 6 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, god son Quentin and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. She unselfishly devoted her love and time to her family. She was predeceased by 7 brothers and 5 sisters. Special thanks to Dr. Turner, Elizabeth(PCP), Ebony (home health aide), Yale Hospital, Laurelwoods and Agency of Aging, for all their love and care. She was loved and will be highly missed by all.

“ Aunt Shirley Ann, you hung in there auntie! When I got the newsmen heart broke in a million pieces! All my childhood & adult memories came flooding through my heart! I am so grateful for you being there when I needed a sitter for the boys during the times when school was closed! Then when my daughter came along being her sitter when i had to work to never turned down an opportunity to be there to help your family!

This one right here is hard knowing no more phone calls, no more talking & laughing about just anything! Thank you for loving me & being there when I needed you the most!

Rest In Power Aunt Shirley Heaven has your wings waiting for you!
