“ Aunt Regina was a beautiful person both inside and out . I would see my Auntie out somewhere and she would smile so hard grab me an kiss me on the cheek and say was going on Bran how u been just so thrilled and excited to see me. 😊 You can tell those type of moments seeing family was special to her cuz she had a special heart. She was always talking bout what kind of gel do i use in my hair 😂😂😂😂. HER blonde hair was poppin TOO 100 i used to want my hair light like hers.. Not sure if anybody knew how often I seen my auntie but we always had a diff type of bond that was real and no matter how long it went that we hadnt seen each other or spoke we would pick right back up where we LEFT off laughing and smiling. Aunt Regina was a very strong Woman. She kept going an was a fighter no matter what she was going thru in life. She kept her faith in God and still showed love to everyone. Aunt Regina had always had a lil swagg to her too 🤳👩🏾💯👑 and kept herself Pretty. You will most def be missed and I know your in Heaven with God still strong as ever, smiling down watching over all of us still looking pretty With that big heart RIP ❤️ YOU
