“ Uncle "Stan the Man" was always the life of the party. You always knew exactly what he was thinking because he spoke his mind and stood firm in his directness. Yet, he was kind, compassionate, and dependable. When I was out-of-state in college he would often call me on the payphone (now I'm dating myself) to check in to make sure that I was "doing the right thing" and would end every call by saying that he loved me and was proud of me. Although these past years were tough on Uncle Stan he fought valiantly. The comfort now is knowing that he's resting peacefully. So, to God be the Glory!
