

Steven Holloman

May 18, 1965 - September 9, 2024

Steven Edward Holloman, known mostly as Steve, defeated his illness in the comfort of his home on Monday, September 9, 2024. Just 59 years young, he was born May 18, 1965, to the late John Edward Holloman Jr., and Leatha Mae (Rankins) Holloman in Middletown, Connecticut. As an adolescent, Steven attended Middletown High School, graduating in 1985. He soon after met the love of his life and former spouse Vickie Hayes. Together they created 3 beautiful daughters; Shaneya, Danaè, and Lanaè. Steve was a very hard working young man, he worked years in the manufacturing field at Durham Manufacturing, Bull Metal and Bourdon Forge. Later, he would eventually enjoy the home renovating/construction field for a short period, prior to becoming disabled.

Steve was an extremely loving, caring and renounced man, who unapologetically lived his life to the fullest while loving hard on those who loved on, and mattered most to him. Steven leaves his cherished and adorned family, and is survived by his dearest mother Leatha Mae (Rankins) Holloman of Middletown, CT. His three beautiful daughters Shaneya (Rico) Robinson of Middletown, Danaè Holloman of Rocky Hill, Lanaè Holloman of Middletown. A Beloved bonus daughter Ninoshka Pantoja of Middletown. Eight grandchildren Jaden Holloman, Zion Robinson, Gianna Holloman, Dillan Robinson, Summer Robinson, Haven Dickman, Bella Ortega & Cruz Ortega as well as Three beloved bonus grandchildren; Juelz Delgado, Julexisz Diez and Jaxsiel Diez.

Two brothers Dominic (Laura) Jimmerson, Bryant (Barbara) Holloman, five sisters Roxanne Holloman, Jannie Holloman McCray, Annette (Jerry) Bruton, Lynette (Andy) Harlan, Deirdre Leyes. A host of wonderful nieces and nephews and cousins and life long friends. Steven is Predeceased by his father John Edward Holloman Jr.

Steven's unique and angelic presence will truly be missed, but never forgotten.
