“ There is no goodbyes to this little angel I will see you later I was planning on waiting nine months for this angel to arrive but he arrived in eight the last hour of him entering this world was the longest hour of my life because I couldn't see him being born do to complications that might occur during his birth so I was in the room waiting, praying, and talking to my Lord to bring him in healthy and strong and his mom my daughter and the Lord did just what I ask I couldn't see him right after he was born but I got a chance to see him about an hour later with his dad because mom exhausted I couldn't hold him only his parents could so I talked to him while dad held him he was there for a few days and then it was time to come home I remember the picture I snapped of him when he was put into the car seat to come home he was tickled and laughing as if he knew he was going home I no he did when we got home I could not wait to wrap my arms around him and when I did it was like holding a piece of heaven I enjoyed holding him every day and every night and throughout the day sometimes I came wanting to hold him but mom would say he is sleep so I would go to the crib and lean over it and say (thatsa grandma) and he would start moving because he knew my voice I would say he's woke and I got to hold him mom would say I woke him up I was already holding him by then I would always whisper in his ear (I love you grandma and then I would say grandma love you to TJ) and then make a kissing sound in his ear and he be laughing so much I am truly going to miss this angel I still feel like this is a bad dream and I am going to wake up and all this will be over I know one day we will see each other again until that day (thatsa grandma I love you grandma, grandma love you to TJ) Love Always Grandma Phoenix.

“ As his Auntie I was extremely excited for the opportunity to bless him with some gems throughout his life. With the little time spent here in the physical, I thank God that I was blessed with the opportunity to spend as much time with you as I was able. I got to hold you, talk to you, and though not too long it was valuable. Gone too soon, and I won't question God's plan. I'll just stay here making sure I comfort your mother and father and make sure Emani (your big cousin) never forgets you. Sleep in Peace Angel 🙏👼??

“ From his Grandma Veronica, i remember the day of the baby shower i spent with him, it was an amazing experience. he stayed up with me for hours looking around, and looking at me smiling like he wanted to say something or talk to me. He loved it when i rubbed his chin, he would move his head from left to right strong and steady like he enjoyed it and made sure that i was able to rub both sides, just like his father who used to enjoy the same thing. I LOVE YOU AND MISS...I think about you everyday...MY ANGEL TJ
