

Thomas Baker

October 6, 1967 - November 12, 2019

Mr. Thomas Lee “Tony” Baker, was born on October 6, 1967 to the loving parents Virginia Baker and the late Leon Baker. He received a graceful call to enter his eternal rest on Tuesday, November 12, 2019. Tony was 52 years old and a resident of New Haven, Connecticut.

Tony was best known for the love and kindness he extended to everyone. His gentle spirit touched the lives of everyone he knew and strangers alike. He had a soft-spoken hello for each person he met along the way. You would often find him downtown, at Dunkin Donuts enjoying a cup of coffee, often being sociable on the New Haven Green, after spending time at the library and reading. He enjoyed reading books and singing (his hidden talent).

Tony attended Lee High School in the city of New Haven, CT. Although, Tony was easy going, his personality was very vibrant. He was a very influential leader of his peers.

He leaves to cherish is memory, his beloved mother, Virginia Baker (Larry Singletary) of Wedgefield, SC; 1 sister, Patricia Baker-Daney of Waterbury, CT; 3 brothers Daniel Baker, Leonard Baker and Shahkim Khalil all of New Haven, CT; a special Aunt, Lois McFadden; and a host of aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends. Tony is predeceased by his father, Leon Baker; brother Kevin Baker; nephew Kevin Lee Baker; and grandparents Johnnie (Geneva) Witherspoon and Ruth Collin and Alfia Baker.

While his physical presence is no longer with us, his legacy of kind acts, love, and affection shared with us, will live on forever in our hearts.
