

Timothy Lindsay

September 7, 1990 - May 8, 2025

Timothy Dean Lindsay was born on September 7, 1990, in Bridgeport, Connecticut, to Amy Yvette Lindsay and Bobby Dean Lindsay Sr.

He passed away peacefully on May 8, 2025, at Baystate Medical Center in Springfield, Massachusetts. He had lived in Enfield, Connecticut, for the past seven years.

Timothy graduated from Bassick High School in Bridgeport. He was a people person who could make anyone laugh and brighten their day. He loved God, dressing sharp, listening to music, traveling, eating good food and just loving life. But most of all, he loved being a father to his son, Ki'yon Timothy Lindsay.

He was also a hard worker. He had a business called Nice Guy Movers, held a Commercial Driver's License (CDL), and was OSHA certified. He always used his skills to help people when he could.

Timothy was always full of life. He was a people person who could make anyone laugh and brighten their day. He never met a stranger, once you met him, you remembered him. His smile and jokes could turn anyone's day around.

He was known for being loyal, honest, and loved by his family and friends.

He will be deeply missed.

“ To my beautiful daughter Amy Williams and her family, our family. I wish to give my condolences and love 2 and 4 us all truly Timmy will be missed. He was such a great person and he loved his mother so much I believe that Timmy will be in the arms of Jesus for he was born in the church he knew who Jesus was. God bless and keep us all and let Timmy be an example of A new Beginning. TO God be the glory Amen your mother
