

Tracy Vereen Haynes

November 9, 1965 - October 18, 2022

Tracy Lynn (Vereen) Haynes, 56, of Meriden, wife of Ewart Haynes, departed this life peacefully Tuesday, October 18, 2022. Born November 9, 1965, in Middletown, CT to the late John Leroy Vereen and Lena (Dunklin) Vereen Bryant.

She graduated Woodrow Wilson High School in 1983; then attended Morris School of Business in Hartford. She worked at Ames Corporate office in Rocky Hill, CT until 1987 when she began her work in public service with the State of Connecticut, Department of Social Services until she retired.

In 2000, Tracy and Ewart were married and spent the last 22 years building a life together. Her grandchildren were her everything. She enjoyed music, shopping, and cooking. Tracy would cook bluegills, ribeye steaks, fried chicken, fried corn, and oxtails with white rice just to name a few things.

Although Tracy could not eat seafood, she made it for her family with love. Her lasagna was the absolute best as it was her specialty.

Left to cherish her memory is her husband, Ewart Haynes; daughter; Keziah Haynes of Meriden, Sons; Jasmon Vereen, Dwayne Haynes, and Ewart J. Haynes all of Meriden. Sisters: Ramonda Spievey of Locus Groove, GA, Jewel Vereen Whitney of Middletown; Brothers: Quinn Vereen (Denise) of New Britain, John Vereen of Middletown, and Erin Hassett of Middletown.

Three grandchildren Zahmaria Thomas, Jazmine Vereen and Jayden Bell and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Tracy was predeceased in death by her Grandmother Lizzie (Nanny) Thompson and Aunt Jessie McFarlane.
