Sunrise: February 9, 1966

Sunset: January 7, 2025

Troy Darnell “Donnie” Little of West Haven, Connecticut, was called home to Glory on January 7, 2025.

Troy was born on February 9, 1966, to the late Brosco and Jacquelyn Little.

He attended and graduated from New Haven Public Schools.

Later in life, July 7th 2022, he married Nuliva Montilla.

He worked as a limousine driver and for ACES while owning and operating Cameo Cleaners in West Haven, CT. Troy loved the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Yankees, often sporting his beloved Yankees hat. He was known for his sarcasm, sense of humor, and love of sports, fishing, marine life, computers, and listening to his wife play the violin in their living room beside their fish tank.

Troy is survived by his loving wife; his 2 children Trevour and Neishaali Little; his stepchildren, Uziel and Adriel Maita, and Kelhya (Roberto) Velez.

He also leaves behind his brothers, Marcus Little and Billy Chapman; his sisters, Shirrell, Tocarra and Artesha Little; his grandchildren and a host of nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, cousins, and a host of friends. In addition to his parents he was predeceased by his loving grandmothers Dennia "Nana" Fisher and Josie Foreman and brother Anthony Little.
