“ Nights like this
2-15-25
2:53am
I find myself going crazy my heart beating out of my chest just knowing I can't see you or hear your voice I feel like I'm tripping twy I believe I'm still in denial I don't know sis I wish you could tell me it's ok. Words could never ever express what I feel. Cold, lonely my sister my best friend my face is on the ground my heart is hurting sometimes I just don't know what to do. But when I think about mommy & daddy I know I have to be strong we love you baby girl “ Twyla was a joy to be around. She was dramatic and funny, quite the actress. First time I took all the kid cousins hiking, we ran away from bear prints and rattling leaves because Twyla was so jumpy. She made us all laugh until we cried when we arrived back in the yard after climbing, jumping, skipping and running through the small forest. Twyla hugged the ground in the backyard screaming, “We made it back to civilization.” It was a great time with all those kids in the woods scaring all the animals. The kids ran away from the animals which were running away from the kids. Great times to see so many happy faces.

“ *To my family, Words cannot express how sorry I am for your loss. Watching Twyla grow up was such a joy. She was FUNNY, SASSY, and didn't take no mess from nobody. Babygirl, you're in good hands now. God got you.
Love Beverly and family*
