

Tyrease Donnell Conyers

November 20, 1982 - February 22, 2021

On Monday February 22nd, Tyrease Donnell Conyers affectionately known as “Ty”, went home to be with the lord at age 38. Tyrease is predeceased by his grandmother Francis Witherspoon- Conyers. In 1982 Tyrease was born in New Haven, CT to parents Larry and Barbara Lakes. In 2011 Tyrease married his long time girlfriend Lori Filipek-Conyers. Together they raised four children, two sons, Naesean and Seth Conyers and two daughters, Angelise and Grace Conyers of Phoenix Arizona.

Tyrease leaves behind to cherish his memory: Four sisters, Trisheena Palmer (William) of Durham, NC. Franchesca Conyers of Hamden, CT. Adrienne Hodges (Keith) of Atlanta, GA. Felicia Lewis of Cuthbert, GA. He also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Tyrease was a very talented artist who started drawing at an early age. He was pursuing his degree in Psychology at Grand Canyon University where he maintained honor student status. He was an avid music lover. He played the drums at his family church and sang in several church choirs. His favorite song was “Awesome” by gospel artist Charles Jenkins. He enjoyed cooking, his specialty being Barbecue. Tyrease prided himself on keeping up with the latest fashion trends and always kept himself well groomed.

Tyrease was full of encouragement and passion. He had a very caring heart and a personality that would light up any room. He was always one to do his best to make someone smile when they were feeling down by either telling a joke or simply smiling at them until they smiled back. Tyrease will always be loved and he will be greatly missed.
