“ I'm going to remember that trip we took to see our uncle in Tn. We stay in the back of the van, cracking up and telling little private jokes with tears in our eyes, laughing so hard. I will miss him. We were planning to make another trip to Tn again. God had another plan for him. I will always love you. Tyrone. Gone too soon. Love cuz Gloria

“ Remembering back to the 1970's to 80's being on Henry at between orchard and Dixwell Tyrone and John. Use to come around. I was a little younger but they always. Use to say there Bad @ss Baby Charlie but we all got along. It was nt just being friends on Henry orchard and Dixwell. It was like a family. We all was kept in check but we all did our little crazy things. Tyrone. Was All ways the jokester Funny but was always a Cool dude like I said he was like family well Atleast he treated me that way but would never let me live down the day of a accident with John on Henry st every time we ran across each other I'd have to be the joke of the accident but it was all good. We respected one another till I see you again May you Rest In peace 🙌 you will always be in our Hearts ❤️
