“ I remember the times young king I use to get you and either take you out for lunch or to your AAU practices and we would talk about things. It has been a honor to work you and your family as your Mentor. You was always smiling too Ty and that's what people are going to remember you for and your preeminent love for the game of Basketball . You was always a respectful, smart and funny mentee who was like a little brother. I'm going to miss you Ty, among many others as well, fly high young king. Every time I pass a basketball court , it will bring back memories of the talented, young basketball player you was.

I didn't personally know you but I've heard so many wonderful reflective memories of your beautiful spirit. God wraps his arms around your family. And pray that and pray as you rest in the arms of our Lord and savior
