

Tyson Streater

May 26, 2005 - March 15, 2019

Tyson aka Fly Ty, T Train, or Moose was a fun, loving 8th grader at North End School in Waterbury, CT. He found beauty in things others often take for granted. His free time was spent either enjoying nature or playing with his best friend; Dante. He was well aware from where his blessings come as he was often found looking up at the sky.

Tyson was a fighter and his strength lied in his determination. Obstacles didn't overcome him nor deter him. Nothing took away his joy as he always found a reason to smile. Even at such a young age, you left a legacy. Tyson you changed views on disabilities through your abilities.

His jest and spirit touched the hearts of many. Ty Ty could always brighten your day. Whether it was his Dee Dee's or mischievous way he would steal from your plate.

Tyson Streater departed this world on March 15, 2019. Preceded by his brother, Alexander Noble on October 12, 2012. “ I was Tyson's teacher at Celentano for 4 years. He was always so energetic and ready to go. Tyson was very lovable and never refused a hug. I have wonderful memories of Tyson and how hard he tried his best to accomplish tasks related to school. May he continue to be loved and held in the arms of the angels in heaven. Forever in my heart
