“ Your family are in my Prayers. I did not know that Vanessa had passed on. A call from my home town (New Haven) was made to me. Vanessa and I went to Conte/Lee High together. She will be missed. One day we shall see her again. Stay strong and may God keep his arms of protection around your family.

“ To my family
Vanessa will be surely missed with the bright smile she always had. So friendly and caring and you don't always find that but my cou's had it. I will miss her very much and GOD will see the children through it. May God continue to bless my little cousins. Love You all.

“ This is a very sad day for me to know that "Vanessa" has passed on. She was a very kind hearted person and we had a lot of fun together. I am truly going to miss her and may her family lay upon the Lord in this difficult time. May you rest my sister until we all meet again.

“ Remember the laughter and hold on to the good times. John 14:2-3 In My Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. Live so that we will see her again. We love you Cousin Mary, Cousin David-Earl, Dave Jr., Dorche, Mike, Earl and Scottie. May you find peace.

“ Dear Earl,

Remember that your loss is shared by many friends who care and that you're in our thoughts and hearts and in our every prayer

*May you find the courage to face tomorrow
in the love that surrounds you today.*

May the love of friends and family be a source of comfort to you at this time

*At this time of sorrow may these truths sustain you..
...your loved one will always be as close as a memory and the God of all comfort is always as close as a prayer.*

It will be the little things that you will remember *the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter.

And although it may seem hard right now,
it will be the memory of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again*

P.S. I will keep you in my prayers
