

Vivian E. Parker

April 17, 1942 - January 6, 2020

Vivian E. Parker, 77, departed this life peacefully on Monday January 6, 2020. Vivian was born April 17, 1942 one of fifteen children to the late Clarence Jones Sr. and Frances Williams Jones in Florence, South Carolina.

Vivian received Christ at an early age at Trinity Baptist Church in Florence, South Carolina. She began her education in the public school system in Florence and graduated high school in Philadelphia Pennsylvania, after her parents moved there. Shortly after graduating high school, Vivian moved to New Haven, CT where she took some nursing classes. She met and married Lonnie Parker and from that union Darien L. Parker was born. Vivian worked as a Home Health Aid before becoming a machinist at General Dynamic and then Pratt and Whitney Aircraft before retiring. Vivian was well-known and loved by many. She had a nick name for every child she came in contact with. Vivian opened her doors to everyone and everyone felt at home in her home. Vivian was predeceased by five brothers; Clarence Jones Jr., Henry Jones, Nathaniel Jones, Joseph Jones, and James Jones, four sisters; Lelia Blackmon, Ruby Ford, Annis Calicat, and Mildred Jones and one foster brother; Joseph Maybanks. She leaves to cherish her memory her son Darien L. Parker(Linda), four sisters; Edith Hunter, Dorothy Canty, Marie Dove, and Joyce Jones. Vivian was guardian to her grandniece Nalla Branch. She also leaves to cherish her memory her grandchildren Jasmine Doughty and Dominique Parker, her Godson Brandon Lewis, seven great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
